FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

5. On or about May 15th, 2009, plaintiffs and defendant Jeffrey Epstein, among others, entered into a certain Agreement for Design Services (the “contract”), a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.
6. Each of the parties was obligated by the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing to take no steps to frustrate or obstruct performance of the contract by the other.
7. From the time of the contract, plaintiffs expended and became obligated to others in the sum of more than $300,000 in the performance of their obligations under the contract.
8. From the start of plaintiffs’ performance of the terms of the contract, defendant Epstein acted in bad faith and unfairly to unreasonably and successfully frustrate and obstruct plaintiffs’ performance, making it impossible for plaintiffs to comply with the contractual terms.
